Dear Sirs:-

To illustrate an article I am writing for ~~The American~~ Numismatist, I require either engravings or photo's of gold, silver or copper coins, of the various periods from the years 1125 to 1200 taking in the periods of the reign of Frederick I, surnamed Barbarosa, to the reign of Henry VI, Emperors of Germany and of Rome.

Such coins were minted on the Trifels in the RheinPfalz or the Rhein Palatinate.

At this same imperial mint coins were also struck for the free town of Annweiler, adjacent the Trifels and which Annweiler coins bear the name of the town of Annweiler, or Anviler. Photo's or engravings are also required of either gold, silver or copper coins, of this town.

Such illustrations will add great value to the article if such ¹illustrations may be had from your collection by way of engravings or photo's. Advise cost of same and any particulars you may have to help me.

Sincerely

William J. Schultz

Dear Sir:

Unfortunately we have none of the coins of the period you write about as our collection is weak in German coins of this time. We have a number of books on German coins but in a hasty glance I could find nothing that illustrated any coins for you. If you know the title of any books with illustrations that you want let me know and we can or photostat, possibly, these for you. Our photographer is on a vacation and will not be back for three weeks. I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

H:JG
